

BASIC LONG RANGE PRECISION RIFLE CLINIC

Fall River Gun Club will be hosting a two-day Basic Long Range Precision Rifle Clinic on June 22nd and 23rd. The lead instructor for the clinic will be Chris Opfer from Huron, South Dakota with his shooting partner, Brett Barnes. Chris is one of the top professional shooters in South Dakota.

0800 hr.: The topics of the morning of the first day will include:

- Safety
- Equipment selection and care
- Intro to ballistics
- Millrad/MOA
- Use of ballistic apps and wind meters

The afternoon of the first day will continue the content of the morning, but will move to the range concentrating on building a solid shooting position:

- Verification of zero
- Building your position, fundamentals of marksmanship, trigger control, recoil management
- Intro to wind reading.
- Data gathering out to 1000 yds.

0800 hr.: The morning of the second day will concentrate on:

- Positional shooting and shooting off barricades.
- Approach to PRS shooting.
- Preparing for your first PRS match

The afternoon of the second day will culminate in a fun PRS style mini match amongst participating students. This will be an opportunity to put it all together and shoot in a relaxed, un-intimidating atmosphere.

The class is open to 10 students in a first come first served basis. The cost is $ 400.00 with a $ 200.00 deposit at the time of application, the balance due no later than 6/1/24. A full refund of the deposit will be given if you withdraw prior to 6/1/24. No refunds after that date. Lunch will be served each day.

Call: 605-517-1759 first to confirm your seat. Only 10 seats will be offered in this class.
